Call for the Finnish-Russian Cross-Border University (CBU) 3-year-PhD scholarship, School of Computing, University of Eastern Finland

The CBU is a university consortium of highly recognized universities in Russia and Finland. The CBU involves nine participating universities: three in Finland and six in Russia.

The Faculty of Science and Forestry at the University of Eastern Finland offers a three-year-scholarship of 1500 EUR per month starting January 1, 2013. The scholarship is meant for doctoral studies at UEF, School of Computing, and is expected to involve co-operation with Russian CBU Partner University. The selected PhD student's official university of PhD studies and main place of work should be UEF, School of Computing.

A suitable applicant will have a MSc or licentiate degree and she or he is / will be a PhD student at UEF, School of Computing. The applicant should have a research topic that fits in the profile of the UEF's School of Computing where one of the supervisors should hold a Professorship or corresponding competence, and the supervisor should have approved merits in the thematic area of the doctoral thesis. The applicant is expected to complete the doctoral thesis as a member of the supervisor's research team. The balance of the CBU PhD-students in research groups will be taken into account. In the selection process, applicants or supervisors with existing connections between Finland and Russia will get extra merit.

Citizens of all countries can apply. The application deadline is December 14, 2012. The grant will be starting earliest from January 1, 2013, or it can be agreed. The free form application in English including CV, PhD Research plan, PhD Study plan, and statements from supervisors must arrive to the Registry office of the University of Eastern Finland at latest by December 14, 2012 at 3:00 pm. The application documents will not be returned.

Addresses: Registry office of the University of Eastern Finland, Joensuu Campus (street address: Yliopistokatu 2, Aurora building), P.O.Box 111, 80101 Joensuu, Finland or Registry office of the University of Eastern Finland, Kuopio Campus (street address: Yliopistonranta 1 E, Snellmania building), P.O.Box 1627, 70211 Kuopio, Finland.
